FROM THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Lawrence E. Dennis, Provost and Director of the Massachusetts State College System, has resigned his position effective January 4, 1975. Dr. Dennis has accepted the position of Senior Vice President of the Institute for Educational Development with offices in Chicago and New York. I am sure that the entire College community joins me in wishing him much success in his new role.

A note from Dean Sydney Kaplan:

have occurred
Instances of damaging, by forcing improperly, the delivery doors to the sandwich machine and other vending machines. Forcing the delivery doors causes jamming and prevents other people from purchasing food. Since it is costly to repair these machines, the sandwich machine will be removed if the damage continues.

Please cooperate and follow the instructions on the machines.

THE OFFICE OF PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT would appreciate receiving copies of published articles or news items about Mass Art or its people. This office sends many news releases to the media concerning Mass Art activities, but we don't always catch the printed results. Please keep this in mind when you read your local town newspapers, art magazines and general periodicals and send copies of such articles to Dorothy Esterquest, Planning & Development Office, B-1, Longwood.

And please keep us informed about what you are doing -- your exhibitions, conferences you attend, trips you take, so that this office can send out appropriate publicity. Thanks!

From Marjorie Hellerstein, Chairperson Faculty Advancement and Welfare Committee:
It is important that your faculty personnel data folders be up-to-date. Include your current personal data form, letters of recommendation, slides of work, self-evaluations, or anything that will be valuable in decisions the committee makes on retention, promotion and sabbaticals.

The FAW committee will make final decisions on retention of second year faculty on October 30; of first year faculty on December 18; of retention of third, fourth, and fifth year faculty on February 26; and on promotions on March 5. Input to the Committee for those meetings should be completed by October 21, December 9, February 12, and February 19, respectively. Requests for sabbaticals should be filed by Februday 26.

College students with less than $1,500.00 in personal resources and no monthly income may be eligible for food stamps worth up to $46.00. Students with small monthly incomes may get stamps worth somewhat less.

A student who wishes to apply for food stamps should do so through his local welfare office, telephoning first to learn the hours when he should be at the office.

From the State Colleges Council on Canadian Studies:

Thanks to the good offices of the Canadian Consulate in Boston, we have received notice that Le Centre International de Sejour du Quebec will be reserved from February 14th to the 18th for students and faculty from the Massachusetts State College System. This period is the highpoint of Carnival, and our students and faculty can be lodged in the very center of old Quebec for only $5.00 a day (including breakfast).

At its October meeting, the Council on Canadian Studies decided to allocate six openings to each college. Any MCA student or faculty member interested in taking advantage of this generous offer should leave a $5.00 deposit with Dr. Cataldo's Secretary by Monday, Nov. 4. After that date, unfilled openings will be reallocated among interested colleges.

The college library has received from an anonymous donor the gift of two circulating membership cards for use by MCA students at the Brockton Art Center. Marilyn Friedman Hoffman, Director of the Art Center, hopes that they will be frequently used.

* * *

Notices concerning the Realism Exhibition, opening in the Longwood Gallery, November 6, have been sent to students. Faculty members are urged to remind their students that they are asked to bring paintings, drawings, watercolors, sculpture and prints to Longwood, B-3 on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Room 2203, J.F.K. Federal Building, Boston 02203, is sponsoring "The Dirty Picture Program" to help root out eco-pornography -- dirty environments that are offensive to sight, sound and smell. Strict rules governing the submission of entries have been posted on college bulletin boards. Entries must be postmarked no later than November 15, 1974.
